

Client Registration Documents in Vernacular Languages

In order to facilitate better understanding of the registration documents by the investors, NSE and BSE have provided the following documents in different regional vernacular languages:

1. Document stating the Rights & Obligations of stock broker, sub-broker and client for trading on exchanges (including additional rights & obligations in case of internet / wireless technology based trading).
2. Uniform Risk Disclosure Documents (for all segments / exchanges).
3. Guidance Note detailing Do's and Don'ts for trading on exchanges.

The above mentioned documents in vernacular languages are available for download:
