PART-B

RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATIONS AND TRADING BY INSIDERS

(III) Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

- A No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to securities of the Company or securities proposed to be listed by the Company, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- b No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to securities of the Company or securities proposed to be listed by the Company, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- c Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information.
- d Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would,
 - i. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
 - ii. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the sharing of information being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- e For the purposes of (d) above, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of (c) above, and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- f The board of directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

(IV) Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

(1) No insider shall trade in securities that are listed on Stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

(i) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of Section (III) as cited above, and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under clause (d) of Section (III).

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the Company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

(ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of section (III) and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under clause (d) of Section (III).

(iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

(iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

(v) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

(a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(vi) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation (V) cited hereafter.

(2) In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.

(3) The SEBI may specify such standards and requirements, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of these regulations.

(V) Trading Plans

- a. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- b. Such trading plan shall:—
 - i not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insiders earlier than six (6) months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - ii not entail trading for the period between the 20th trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - iii. entail trading for a period of not less than 12 months;
 - iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - vi. not entail trading in securities of the Company for market abuse.
- c. The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- d. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information so as to avoid a violation of this Regulations.

- e. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the Stock Exchanges on which the securities of the Company are listed.
