Pragya is a terror accused, can say anything: Sharma

SADHVI UNDER FIRE OVER GODSE REMARK

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Public Relations Minister PC Sharma targeted BJP and Sadhvi Pragya Thakur for calling Nathuram Godse a patriot.

He said, "Pragya is a terror accused and she can say anything. Gandhiji's ideology is the base of our society and it is there in people's heart and mind." Addressing media on Thursday, Sharma said, "Most of the promises which we made during assembly elections were fulfilled by us and it is keeping us ahead in the state during Lok Sabha elections."

He said that the government has waived of loans of about 21 lakh farmers. "About 55,000 farmers are left under the loan waiver scheme. We will waive off their loans after Model Code of Conduct is revoked. The amount will be transferred in the account of farmers," he added.

The minister also added that the government is focusing on employment generation through businesses. "We have developed and expanding Bhopal airport with the start of international flights. Industries in the state will be nourished and new industries will come up," he added. Sharma claimed that Congress will win most of the seats in Madhya Pradesh and will form the government at the centre.

Will reopen Sunil Joshi murder case if necessary: Minister

Indore: State Minister PC Sharma on Thursday said that if necessary, the state government would reopen former RSS pracharak Sunil Joshi murder case, in which BJP LS candidate from Bhopal Pragya Singh Thakur was acquitted by the court.

Pragya Singh, along with seven others, were acquitted by a court in Dewas on Feb 1, 2017 in the Sunil Joshi murder case due to lack of concrete evidence against them. Joshi was shot dead on Dec 29, 2007 in Dewas Industrial Area police station limits. When asked whether the decision of the lower court to acquit Pragya and others in the Sunil Joshi murder case will be challenged in the high court, Sharma said, "The matter has not been brought to my notice yet. I will see to it tomorrow or the day after when I reach Bhopal."

"After studying it, if necessary, we will definitely reopen the case and also appeal against the (lower court) judgement," he said.

'Lazy' DAVV all set to derail academic calendar

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Despite strict instructions from Chancellor Anandiben Patel to comply with academic calendar, Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya (DAVV) is all set to derail the calendar for session 2019-20.

Reason is being the delay in commencement of admission process.

The university, which had initially planned common entrance test (CET) for admission in most of its courses in May, is now going to hold the exam in June 23, nearly a week before the classes are to be conducted for session 2019-20.

"If CET would be held on June 23, no way the university would be able to start classes from July 1. Even if the university announces results of CET in seven days, it would have to give at least three days for students for appearing in first counselling and thereafter two to three days for submission of fee," said a university professor wishing anonymity.

He stated that the university will not be in a position to complete first round of CET counselling before July 10.

"That means, the classes will begin from either mid-July," he added.

When contacted, vice chancellor Dr Narendra Dhakad said that they know that the admission process has delayed due to unforeseen administrative reasons but they are going to try to comply with academic calendar anyhow.

However, he could not specify

CBSE RESULTS: STUDENTS CAN SEEK COPY OF EVALUATED ANSWER BOOK BEFORE MAY 21

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Students who have doubt in valuation and want to know where they lost marks and why, can apply to Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) for a photocopy of their evaluated answer book from May 20 to 21.

To facilitate transparency, CBSE is willing to send photocopy of evaluated answer book to over 200 teachers for "callous evaluation".

SEEK MAXIMUM RE-EVALUATION FOR ENGLISH

Talking about the issue faced by most students, senior educator Pradeep Joshi said, "English has been a downer for most students and maximum students are filling for re-evaluation in the subject." Even students scoring 100 marks in most subject, have scored in 60s in English.

"Another look in English answer book is likely pump up marks, because it is not possible for all the students to do terribly in language paper, where they generally score well," Joshi said.

Even Class X city topper Shriyansh Raj Awadhiya had scored 100 marks in all the subjects except English. Despite being the city topper, he was surprised at losing marks in English.

Another student who suffered because of English is Aryan Khetawad. "I scored 98 in one subject, 99 in two and 100 marks in a subject, unexpectedly I was given 67 marks in English, which brought down my percentage," he said.

Many other students in city are suffering from English dilemma this year and hope to get justice. Students will have to apply for photocopies first and then pick out questions, where they feel re-evaluation is needed.

'No provision for grace mark in BEd course'

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya (DAVV) has two different policies for grace marks – one for BEd course and other for the rest.

This came to fore when students requiring one marks to clear BEd second semester exams reached the university on Thursday seeking benefit of grace policy but were returned blank.

"There is no provision for grace marks in BEd course," said vice chancellor Dr Narendra Dhakad.

He stated that all courses, barring BEd course, have provision for grace marks.

Minimum one grace mark is granted to students in all courses, except BEd course by the DAVV.

A DAVV officer claimed that all universities in the state, barring DAVV, grant one grace mark to students requiring the same.

However, the vice chancellor rubbished the claim. "No university in the state grants grace marks to BEd students. There is a uniform policy across the state," Dhakad said.

However, he stated that BEd students should also be granted the benefit of grace marks.

"We will push a proposal for the same in the next coordination committee (apex body of higher education in the state) meeting," he added.

police were informed. Later, she was rushed to a hospital but it was too late.
