BJP upbeat, RSS affiliates happy with FM's steps

AGENCIES
New Delhi

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman announcing a host of decisions and undoing some of previous decisions has not only the market happy but has also given the BJP a much-needed reprieve.

Assam Finance Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma said that the announcement made today by the FM are no ordinary decisions. "It will have huge impact in keeping the economy on the right track. Some of the decisions will have immediate effect. I am extremely happy as Assam's Finance Minister at the decisions taken today and want to thank the FM", said Sarma.

Sitharaman's cabinet colleague Prakash Javadekar took to Twitter to congratulate her. He tweeted, "@narendramodi Govt ensures cheaper home&auto loans, higher depreciation for all vehicles,GST refunds to MSMEs within 30 days, withdraws enhanced surcharge on FPIs, releases Rs 70,000 crore to boost liquidity of Banks,removes enhanced surcharge on capital gains " with hashtag that says #GovtBoostsEconomy.

Meanwhile, Ashwani Mahajan, National co-convenor of Swadeshi Jagran Manch, an RSS affiliate, too thanked the FM. Generally critical of economic policies of the Modi government, Mahajan said, "This was much-needed. The middle class will get some immediate respite. I hope it will bring India's economy on a stronger path." Finance Minister Sitharaman on Friday announced a series of decisions including the rollback of the controversial tax surcharge on the Foreign Portfolio Investment (FPIs) announced in the Budget last month.

2 women die after portion of old building caves in

New Delhi: Two women died after a portion of a balcony of an old building collapsed in East Delhi's Shahdara area, police said on Friday. The victims have been identified as Sumitra Sharma (60) and Savitri Bhati (55), both residents of Ram Nagar area, they said. According to a senior police officer, the two women were buying vegetables on Thursday when a portion of the balcony of an old building in Mansarovar Park area fell on them. They were rushed to the GTB Hospital where Savitri was declared brought dead. Sumitra was referred to St Stephen's Hospital where she also succumbed to the injuries.

Cash collecting agent robbed of Rs 20L in Delhi

NEW DELHI

A 30-year-old cash collecting agent was robbed of Rs 20 lakh allegedly by six people in Shahdara's Geeta Colony area, the Delhi Police said on Friday. On Thursday, Jayanti Lal had collected Rs 20 lakh from Gandhi Nagar area and was going towards Chandni Chowk, police said. "When he reached near Geeta Colony flyover around 10 pm, six persons came on three bikes and forcefully stopped the auto-rickshaw in which Lal was travelling. They robbed Rs 20 lakh from him at gunpoint and fled from the spot," said police.

Loot & corruption reined in: PM Modi

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday said the resounding mandate in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls was for building a 'new India', and asserted that corruption, nepotism, loot of people's money, and terrorism have been reined in like never before. In a veiled reference to abrogation of Article 370, PM Modi said: "There is no scope for 'temporary' in India. You have seen that a country of 1.25 billion people, the land of Mahatma Gandhi, Gautam Buddha, Ram and Krishna, took 70 years to remove what was 'temporary'. To remove 'temporary' it took 70 years, I don't know whether I should laugh or cry...Reform, perform, and transform and with permanent systems, the country is moving forward to achieve its goal."

PM Modi, who was in France on the first leg of his three-nation tour, said there have been a number of constructive changes in the last five years. "India is racing ahead not because of Modi...it is because of the stamp of approval that the people of India have given in the form of their votes," the Prime Minister said, amid loud cheers of 'Modi hai toh mumkin hai' (it is possible if Modi is there) from the crowd.

As Pak cries foul over Kashmir, UAE to honour Modi with civilian award

AGENCIES
New Delhi

At a time when Pakistan is virtually begging for support from the Muslim world against India for Kashmir, it faces a huge rebuff from the United Arab Emirates (UAE), with the key Islamic nation set to host Prime Minister Narendra Modi and honour him with the country's highest civilian award.

This comes days after UAE's Ambassador to India, Ahmad Al Banna, said his country found nothing wrong in the Modi government's decision to reorganize Jammu and Kashmir and that it was purely an internal matter of India.

The UAE does not see the decision to end special status of Jammu and Kashmir and its bifurcation as some unique incident and views it as a measure aimed at reducing regional disparities.

Against this backdrop, Modi will be in UAE for two days from Friday and will meet Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi, Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, to discuss bilateral, regional and international matters of mutual interest. A major highlight of the visit will be the presentation of 'Order of Zayed', the highest civilian honour of the UAE, to Modi. The UAE had announced the honour for Modi in April this year for giving a boost to the bilateral relations.

The award is instituted in the name of the country's founding father Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan and is being presented to Modi in the year of his birth centenary, which adds even greater significance to it.

This is the third visit by Modi to UAE in four years and has added importance considering the fact that it is taking place at a time when Pakistan is trying to garner support, particularly from the Muslim countries, against India over abolition of the special status of Jammu and Kashmir and bifurcation of the state.

In that context, it marks a major setback for Pakistan and highlights the extent of isolation it has been subjected to, even in the Islamic world.

The UAE, which is the largest business hub in the Gulf region, hosts a big Indian diaspora and is a destination for a huge number of Indian tourists. India-UAE ties were elevated to a Comprehensive Strategic Partnership in 2015. In February 2018, Modi visited the UAE as Chief Guest at the World Government Summit. The Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi was the Chief Guest at the Republic Day celebrations in 2017. India-UAE bilateral trade stands at $60 billion, and the UAE is India's third-largest trade partner. The UAE is also the fourth-largest exporter of crude oil for India and is home to a 3.3 million-strong Indian community.

Fresh turbulence for Naresh: Forex violation to laundering

STAFF REPORTER
Mumbai

There appears to be more trouble in store for the founder and former head of Jet Airways, Naresh Goyal. While probing a case of alleged forex violation by the founder of the now-grounded carrier, the Enforcement Directorate (ED) sleuths are learnt to have come across instances of money laundering and diversion of funds.

In this connection, the investigating agency on Friday carried out searches across 12 locations in Mumbai and Delhi, belonging to Goyal and a former stakeholder in the airlines, Hasmukh Gardi. Goyal's statement was also recorded by the ED during the day.

Gardi, who initially owned a substantial share in the airlines, now lives in Dubai. His premises in South Mumbai, being looked after by his son-in-law, were searched. It is worth mentioning here that Gardi's name had appeared in the Panama Papers.

Top sources in the ED disclosed that Jet Airways had secured Rs 9,000 crore in loans for the company, of which 25-30 per cent is suspected to have been misappropriated in the form of overseas payments and remittances to commission agents. A contentious transaction pertains to the payments made to a company in Ireland which had leased out planes to Jet Airways.

It is suspected that inflated amounts were paid in the form of rentals to the leasing company, allegedly for diversion of funds, which could invite action under the provisions of Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA).

Sources said that Goyal purportedly held 19 private companies, including five registered abroad. It is alleged that his companies executed several transactions under the guise of selling, distribution and other operating expenses..

Bihar MLA accused of keeping bombs surrenders

AGENCIES
New Delhi

An Independent legislator from Bihar who was evading arrest from the state police on charges of keeping two bombs, an AK-47 rifle and 26 cartridges in his residence on Friday surrendered in a court here, police said. Anant Singh, popularly known as heavyweight MLA from Mokama in Bihar, came to the Saket court with his advocate around 1.45 p.m. and surrendered at 2 p.m.

Singh had been missing from his official residence in Patna since August 17 after an AK-47 rifle, 26 cartridges and two bombs were recovered from his ancestral home at Ladma village in Patna district on August 16.

Multiple teams of Bihar Police were looking for him. A few days ago Singh's video clip went viral on social media in which he was seen saying he does not believe in Bihar Police and that he would surrender only before a court. He was heard saying that the charges against him were fabricated.

Th Bihar police lodged a case against him under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act and Arms and Explosives Act. Later, a Patna court declared him an absconder and the police issued a look-out notice.

India's food industry expected to grow to $482 bn by 2020

AGENCIES
New Delhi,

Indian food and retail industry is expected to grow to $482 billion by 2020, said a statement released by Kagome Foods India on Friday.

"According to industry estimates, the contribution of the food processing industry to India's GDP through manufacturing has been more than 8% in FY17. The Indian food and retail industry is expected to grow to $482 billion by 2020," the statement said.

"The food processing market is ripe for the picking, and brands such as Kagome, that offer processed tomato foods, are leading the charge in making preservative free products.

They leverage their own vertically-integrated value chain, which guarantees consistent quality and price throughout the year, without added preservatives, colour or flavour."

Rohit Bhatla, MD of Kagome Foods India, says, "The Indian food processing market is growing faster than any other. Whether it is salads, home-cooked meals, ready-to-eat packets, or a specific ingredient-based offering, the country's busy diaspora wants nutritious food, without investing too much time and effort into the process.

"The role of technology in scaling up operations in the sector will be tremendous. The government is also aiding the development of food processing infrastructure," he added.

POST-BUDGET DAHI ...

The government will also lay down a clear definition of MSMEs. The liquidity of the PSBs has been enhanced by the government, which will mean easy loans to MSMEs, small traders and self-help groups. Besides upfront release of Rs 70,000 crore, the finance minister announced another dose of Rs 5 lakh crore capital investment in PSBs to benefit corporates, retail borrowers and traders.

Her hope is that the PSBs with better liquidity will fast-track collaboration with the NBFCs for loans to MSMEs, small traders and self-help groups.She was also happy to announce that the banks have decided to pass on to the borrowers the rate of reduction by the RBI.Sitharaman also announced one-time loan settlement through a check box approach to help MSMEs and retail borrowers. She also announced that banks will return the documents of the borrowers within 15 days of the loan closures. This will help those who mortgage properties for loans.As regards MSMEs and traders in general, she announced that all old GST refunds will be cleared within the next 30 days and as a rule all new refunds will be ensured within 60 days. To boost the demand of the automobile industry, the finance minister announced lifting of ban on the government departments for purchase of vehicles for replacing the old ones.Other gestures to the automobile industry include no revision of the one-time registration fee till June 2020. She also said the NBFCs (non-banking finance companies) can use the Aadhaar authenticated bank KYC to avoid duplication.

Ex-Bajrang Dal leader ...

The arrested trio includes Balram Singh (an ex-Bajrang Dal leader), who was among the 15 men arrested in February 2017 from different parts of the country particularly MP, following busting of Chinese SIM Box-enabled ISI spying ring. He along with 12 others was released on bail last year.

"This time, only the module which facilitated fraud money management and transfer for the Pak handlers has been busted with the arrest of three men. Unlike 2017, when Balram and his aides hired bank accounts of others to park and transfer the money, the trio and their aides spread across the country, particularly in Satna and adjoining districts of MP and UP, used their own multiple bank accounts to park and transfer money possibly to fund spying and also terror," a senior police officer, who is a member of the probing team, confided to Free Press. To use somebody's account they had to pay the rent. However, parking the amount in their own account saved the rent amount and also the possibility of leaking the information.

But nothing could prevent them from falling into the web of AT'S like agencies.

The investigating agency is searching as to in whose accounts these people had forwarded the money and for what purpose the money was used.

In February 2017, a full-fledged Chinese SIM Box enabled spying ring was busted by the MP AT'S. Entire ring (guided by common Pakistani handlers) had three parts, including duping people across the country through phone fraud, particularly lottery fraud using the illegal Chinese SIM Box exchanges and then parking the fraud money in multiple bank accounts in Rewa and Satna district of MP's Baghelkhand region. The fraud money parked in those accounts was used to fund spying in India. Two of Pak spies Satwindar and Dadu were arrested in 2016 from Jammu & Kashmir.

Students file mass leave ...

There are several students who are being deprived of school education just because of absence of good road. Meanwhile, headmaster, Kuthkedi, Sukulu Tumdama, said the students of Dudavani have given an application for mass leave. Information is being gathered about the matter.

On the other hand, block education officer, SD Varkade, said teachers are advising the students to go to school on regular basis.

Man, 4 others booked in first triple talaq case in Akola

AKOLA: A woman has filed a case against her husband for giving her instant triple talaq, a practice now banned and punishable under a new law, police said on Friday. The case was filed on Thursday by the woman at the Balapur police station of Akola district in Maharashtra against her husband and his four relatives under the Muslim Women (Protection of Rights of Marriage Act), 2019, and also relevant sections of the IPC, Inspector Gajanan Shelke said.
