SC says need...

While the apex court said that some kind of self-regulation in media was needed, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta argued that "freedom of journalist is supreme". "It would be disastrous for any democracy to control press," Mehta told the bench, also comprising Justices Indu Malhotra and K M Joseph. The bench restrained Sudarshan TV from telecasting two episodes of 'Bindas Bol' programme, scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, saying it prime face appears to "vilify" the Muslim community. During the hearing conducted through video-conferencing, the apex court said that most of the channels are running for TRPs. Mehta said sometimes certain channels are being used for providing the medium to accused to point his or her views. Mehta also said that it needs to be seen if a potential accused could be given a platform to air his or her defense. "The problem with electronic media is all about TRPs, thus leading to more and more sensationalism. So many things masquerade as a form of right," the bench observed. "We are not saying states will impose any such guidelines as it would be an anathema to Article 19 of freedom of speech and expression," the bench said. The apex court said the electronic media has "become more powerful than print media and we have not been supportive of pre-broadcast ban". "I am not necessarily saying that electronic media should be regulated by the state but there must be some kind of self-regulation," Justice Chandrachud said, adding, "We are talking about the electronic media and not about the social media at the moment". Mehta said that there should be some kind of self-regulation but the freedom of journalist has to be maintained.

LS passes bill...

Replying to the debate on the bill, Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi said that funds are needed to fight the COVID-19 pandemic and "charity should begin from home". He also said that the economy was affected due to the lockdown, and in such a situation, the government has taken important decisions to deal with the crisis. Responding to the demand by opposition members to restore MP Local Area Development Scheme (MPLADS), he said: "Whatever decision we have taken on MPLADS is temporary and only for two years". It was decided by the government to suspend the MPLADS funds for 2020-2021 and 2021-2022. Under the scheme, members of both Houses can recommend development programmes involving spending of Rs 5 crore every year. The Congress and other opposition parties in Lok Sabha demanded the restoration of MPLADS funds even as they supported the government's decision to cut the salaries of members of Parliament.

You were serving Trump Dhokla, Derek on lockdown kudos for PM

AGENCIES
New Delhi

In a sharp attack on the BJP-led central government's handling of the pandemic, Trinamool Congress MP Derek O'Brien hit out at Health Minister Harsh Vardhan for only congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi for the lockdown and ignoring state governments and frontline Covid warriors, many of whom lost their lives, on their fight against the coronavirus. He further accused the centre of not preparing for the lockdown, but making elaborate arrangements for US President Donald Trump's India visit in February - a month since India reported its first COVID-19 case. "You didn't do any preparation (for fighting coronavirus), you did preparation when Trump came. What were you doing? You were giving Trump laddus, you were giving him dhokla. That is the time when you announced this lockdown," said Mr O'Brien - among the five MPs evicted from the Parliament on March 18 for wearing a mask. Talking to mediapersons outside the Parliament, the Rajya Sabha MP asked why

Dr Vardhan didn't congratulate "the doctors, healthcare workers, nurses, the police, ward boys, sweepers". "So many of them lost their lives. He couldn't be a little generous and congratulate them? Or condole those who have lost their lives? Tomorrow we will ask these questions. The problem is they do not have any answers," Mr O'Brien said, accusing the BJP-led central government of "doing damage-control" by not answering questions on the crisis. "India's first case was reported on January 30. When the lockdown was announced, we had 600 cases per day, now we have one lakh cases per day. What are you (central government) asking us to do? To bang plates...light diyas," he said.

Covid-19 case tally tops 50 lakh; recoveries in India highest in world

AGENCIES
New Delhi

The Covid-19 case tally crossed the 50-lakh mark on Tuesday with the government saying that the number of recoveries in India was amongst the highest in the world and the country learnt from the experience of nations that suffered high mortalities to avoid a "huge peak" in terms of deaths. The Centre also asserted that there was absolutely "no shortage" of medical oxygen, vital in the treatment of coronavirus, at the national level, while urging states to ensure a proper inventory management at hospital-level and advance planning for timely replenishment so that there is no stockout. At a press briefing, Director General of the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), Dr Balram Bhargava, also said reinfestation was "very, very rare" with Covid-19, but it can happen. Bhargava, however, said it was not a matter of serious concern. Asserting that India has one of the highest number of Covid-19 recoveries, Union Health Secretary Rajesh Bhushan said there are 14 states and union territories (UTs) in the country where the number of active cases are less than 5,000. He said there are 18 states and UTs where the total number of active cases are between 5,000 and 50,000, while there are only four states with more than 50,000 active cases.

BIDEN CALLS TRUMP ‘CLIMATE ARSONIST’

Like coronavirus, POTUS takes even climate change for granted

LALIT K JHA / Washington

US President Donald Trump and his Democratic challenger Joe Biden presented a different pathway to address the issue of climate change, amidst the devastating wildfires that have engulfed parts of California.

Travelling to the region, Trump asserted on Monday he does not think that science knows actually. Biden accused the president in a policy address in Delaware of being a climate arsonist.

"Well, I don't think science knows actually," Trump told California Natural Resources Agency Secretary Wade Crowfoot during a briefing with State Gavin Newsom and other officials to get an update on the efforts to combat the devastating wildfires.

Biden slammed Trump on his policy on climate change. "If you give a climate arsonist four more years in the White House, why would anyone be surprised if we have more of America ablaze?" Biden, 77, said as he hammered Trump for allegedly ignoring science.

"Once again, he fails the most basic duty to a nation. He fails to protect us from the pandemic, from an economic freefall, from racial unrest, from the ravages of climate change. It's clear that we are not safe in Donald Trump's America," Biden said.

"You know, when Donald Trump thinks about climate change, he thinks hoax. When I think about it, I think jobs. Good paying unions jobs that put Americans to work building a stronger, more climate resilient nation, a nation modernized.

"If you give a climate denier four more years in the White House, why would anyone be surprised when more of America is underwater? We need a president who respects science, who understands that the damage from climate change is already here. Unless we take urgent action, it will soon be more catastrophic"

—Joe Biden

We have modernized water and transportation systems, and energy infrastructure to withstand the impact of extreme weather and changing climate," Biden said.

On the other hand, Trump, 74, blamed poor forest management for the fires. "With regard to the forest, when trees fall down after a short period of time, about 18 months, they become very dry. They become really like a matchstick and they get up. There's no more water pouring through and they become very, they just explode. They can explode," he said.

"Also, leaves. When you have years of dried leaves on the ground, it just sets it up. It's really a fuel for a fire. So they have to do something about it. They also have to do cuts. I mean, people don't like to do cuts, but they have to do cuts in between.

If you do have a fire and it gets away, you'll have a 50 yard cut in between so it won't be able to catch to the other side. They don't do that," he said.

"If you go to other countries, you go to Austria, you go to Finland, you go to many different countries and they don't have—I was talking to a head of a major country and he said we are a forest nation. We consider ourselves a forest nation. This was in Europe," he said.

"I said that's a beautiful term. He said we have trees that are far more explosive. He meant explosive in terms of fire. But we have trees that are far more explosive than they have in California and we don't have any problem because we manage our forests. So we have to do that in California too. So I'll go do this and will see you in a little while," Trump said.

Iran will pay a thousand times for any attack: USA

The warning came after a media report that Tehran is planning to avenge the killing of Qasem Soleimani

LALIT K JHA
Washington

President Donald Trump has warned Iran that any attack against the US would be retaliated with "1,000 times greater in magnitude" after media reports that Tehran is planning to avenge the killing of top general Qasem Soleimani in January.

The death of Gen Soleimani, head of Iran's elite Quds Force, in a US airstrike near Baghdad's airport marks a major escalation in the standoff between Washington and Tehran, since US President Trump withdrew from the 2015 nuclear deal and imposed crippling sanctions.

Iran had vowed to seek revenge for Gen Soleimani's killing.

"Any attack by Iran, in any form, against the United States will be met with an attack on Iran that will be 1,000 times greater in magnitude!" Trump said in a tweet after news reports emerged that Iran is planning some kind of attack against the US.

"Iran may be planning an assassination or other attack, against the US in retaliation for the killing of terrorist leader Soleimani, which was carried out for his planning a future attack, murdering US Troops, and the death & suffering caused over so many years," Trump wrote.

Virus infects more than 88K students and teachers in US

AGENCIES / Washington

More than 88,000 coronavirus cases and at least 60 deaths were reported in universities and colleges across the US, a survey has revealed.

The New York Times survey of more than 1,600 American colleges and universities was published on Monday, reports Xinhua news agency.

According to the survey, most of those deaths were reported in the spring and involved college employees and not students.

More than 150 colleges have reported at least 100 cases over the course of the pandemic, including dozens that have seen spikes in recent weeks as in-person classes have started and dorms have reopened.

Many of the metro areas with the most cases per capita in recent days have hundreds of cases at universities, including Oxford of Missouri, Athens of Georgia and Champaign of Illinois.

Some college towns are grappling with fresh Covid-19 outbreaks as the start of the fall semester complicates local responses to the pandemic.

The US continues to be the worst-hit country with the world's highest number of coronavirus cases and deaths.

‘Breathing is underrated’: Navalny posts message from hospital bed

AGENCIES / Berlin

Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny on Tuesday posted a picture of himself in a hospital in Germany and said he was breathing on his own.

He posted on Instagram Tuesday: "Hi, this is Navalny. I have been missing you. I still can't do much, but yesterday I managed to breathe on my own for the entire day. "Just on my own, no extra help, not even a valve in my throat. I liked it very much. It's a remarkable process that is underestimated by many. Strongly recommended."

Navalny, 44, was flown to Berlin for treatment at the Charite hospital two days after falling ill on a domestic flight in Russia on Aug. 20.

A German military lab determined that Navalny was poisoned with Novichok, the same class of Soviet-era agent that Britain said was used on former Russian spy Sergei Skripal and his daughter in Salisbury, England, in 2018.

LALIT K JHA / Washington

The bipartisan legislation was co-sponsored by the entire Texas delegation on Monday.
