Nagrik Upbhokta Manch files petition in HC

Jabalpur: Nagrik Upbhokta Manch has filed a petition in principal bench of Madhya Pradesh High Court in Jabalpur, seeking an order to maintain fire safety measures in hospitals. According to the petition filed after a fire incident at Kamla Nehru Hospital in the state capital where five infants lost their lives, such incidents happened earlier too and the high court had issued orders to the state government to ensure the fire safety norms especially at the hospitals. The orders, however, went unheard, the petitioner Dr Pj Najpande claimed. In the petition, Najpande informed the court that 14 children had died after a fire broke out in the children's ward at District hospital in 2014.

RIISING AIR POLLUTION

Indoreans' lifespan cut short by 4.9 years

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Indoreans can increase their life span by 4.9 years merely by adhering to WHO guidelines for air quality, claims Energy Policy Institute of India's recent report.

On the occasion of World Pneumonia Day on Friday, MGM Medical College's department of respiratory medicine along with Doctors for Clean Air and Climate Action-Indore Chapter organised an awareness cum felicitation programme "Clean Air-Healthier Lungs: Impact of Air Pollution and Climate Change on Respiratory Health in Indore City". Experts said that India was ranked among the most polluted countries of the world. This had shortened average lifespan of an Indian by 6.3 years (as per the latest report released by Air Quality Life Index - AQLI). With an average annual Air Quality Index of around 144, Indore too was identified as one of the non-attainment cities under the National Clean Air Programme. According to the latest research data published by Energy Policy Institute of India (EPIC), the Air Quality Life Index for Indore was 4.9 years, which means Indore residents would be able to add 4.9

years to their lifespan if WHO guidelines on air quality were met, said experts in the programme. Air pollution is known to exacerbate pneumonia.

The infant mortality rate due to pneumonia has seen a 10% rise in Indore despite number of acute cases registering a decline in recent years. Clean Air was basic human right that only determines the health, quality of life and the idle span of human existence, addressed experts in the programme.

The programme was addressed by Dr Salil Bhargava, Mohit Sharma (Counsellor; Confederation of Indian Industries), Dr Sumi Mehta (Senior Epidemiologist).

Thieves make away with jewellery worth lakhs

FP NEWS SERVICE
Mhow

Thieves broke into a house in Shanti Paradise on Harsola Road and made away with gold and silver jewellery worth lakhs of rupees. According to reports, Mahesh Biwal owns house number 176 of Shanti Paradise on Mhow-Harsola Road, about 7 km from the city. Biwal is an employee of Central Railway Bhopal.

The family had gone to Bhopal on Diwali. On return they found that thieves had broken the main door of the house and de-camped with Rs 57,000 in cash and jewellery worth lakhs. The jewellery was meant for daughters' marriage. Mahesh said that gold jewellery worth over Rs 10 lakh was stolen from the house. Kishanganj Police registered a case against unknown accused.

Dilapidated roads expose govt's claims of pothole free roads

FP NEWS SERVICE
Sonkatch

Dilapidated roads from Bairakhedi to Gandharvapur and Ghatiya to Chandkhedi are enough to expose

Large potholes and dilapidated roads have led to accidents in past. Residents have made numerous complaints about the issue, to no avail. Even the officials and leaders who pass through these roads almost on daily basis have remained apathetic to the woes of the commuters. People are uploading memes on social media to attract attention of the decision makers about the dreadful situation. Public Works Department sub-divisional officer Bhagwat Mahajan said that these roads are marked under state highway and the tender process for its laying is on.

the tall claims of the government on pothole free roads across the town. The situation is so pathetic that not only vehicle owners but peddlers also have a hard time in commuting on the roads.

Municipal Corporation turns blind eye to mess around trenching ground

Growing heap of garbage in trenching ground on Jaleria road and negligence of Municipal Corporation towards the issue is posing risk to the residents. An expensive machine installed here, to decompose the garbage, is lying unused. Jitendra Nagar a resident of Bhagasara village said that the sub-divisional magistrate Shivani Taretiya has been informed about the issue. But he has failed to solve the issues plaguing the locality. The locals are also concerned that stray animals specifically cows may get harmed as they are seen consuming plastic bags strewn in the area.

Power demand crosses 5200 MW for first time this year

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

For the first time in ongoing fiscal, electricity demand crossed 5,200 MW in Malwa-Nimar region which comes under Madhya Pradesh Western Region Power Distribution Company. As per West Discom, 9.30 crore units of electricity was supplied as per the demand on Thursday. West Discom managing director Amit Tomar attributed the increase in demand of power to irrigation during the Rabi season. "The maximum demand for electricity was recorded at 5,220 MW on Thursday," he said.

Tomar said that 1.40 crore units of electricity was supplied in Indore district on Thursday followed by 1.30 crore units in Dhar district, 1.10 crore units in Ujjain district, 88 lakh units in Dewas, 81 lakh units in Khargone and 66 lakh units in Ratlam. In other districts, power supply ranged from 24 lakh to 60 lakh units.

Tomar said that preparations have been made for Rabi season in all 15 districts under West Discom, so that electricity can be provided for irrigation as per the demand. Demand is expected to increase further till November end, he added.

TO GAIN PM'S ATTENTION

Selected teachers, their families to hold Samuhik Upwas on Monday

BHOPAL: Over 15,000 teachers selected for government schools and waiting for appointment letters will observe Samuhik Upwas (Mass Fast) on November 15- the day PM Narendra Modi is visiting the state capital. "Teachers selected but waiting for appointment letters will observe fast along with their family members at their homes on November 15. We all would be praying to give wisdom to the government that could pave the way for our appointments," said state convenor of selected teachers association, Amit Gautam. Teachers Eligibility Exams were organised in the year 2018 to fill 20,679 posts of teachers from school education department and 7,924 posts of teachers from the Tribal Welfare Department. After protests by selected candidates, school education department started recruitment drive from February 2020 for over 20,670 teachers. However, while declaring lists of the selected teachers, school education department issued list of only 12,043 candidates.

Rename Habibganj rly stn after Vajpayee: Pragra

Bhopal: After senior BJP leader Jaibhan Singh Fawaiya, BJP Member of Parliament from Bhopal Pragra Singh Thakur has now demanded renaming of Habibganj railway station in Bhopal after former Prime Minister late Atal Bihari Vajpayee.
